

5 Stars of Ukiyo-e Artists -Utamaro, Sharaku, Hokusai, Hiroshige and Kuniyoshi

5 STARS?
UKIYO-E
ARTISTS

May 27(Tue.)- July 6(Sun.), 2025 / The Ueno Royal Museum

—About—

Kitagawa Utamaro, who painted graceful women; Toshusai Sharaku, who became popular for his dramatic portrayals of actors; Katsushika Hokusai, who uniquely expressed landscapes, flowers and birds, people, and everything under the sun; Utagawa Hiroshige, who breathed new life into Ukiyo-e with a focus on illustrations of famous places; Utagawa Kuniyoshi, who greatly made his presence known with his humorous style of painting. Focusing on the masterpieces of these five great Ukiyo-e artists who gained popularity in a variety of genres, such as portraits of beautiful women, actors, and landscapes, approximately 140 pieces will be introduced.

Please enjoy the competitive “performance” between the five great stars of Ukiyo-e who gave flair to the Edo period.
